couldn't touch Knell, and fell down more or less gracefully.

Jones, the young phenomenon, was in the box for the visitors, and the way the home team vent out in the first inning gave the cranks a cold chill. But the locals were soon to show that no man with the name of Jones, "phenomenon" or not, had terrors for them. Larkin was given his base on balls. Then buffee as a reminder of d times sent a liner out toward the center-field fence with Brown in

Then the rain poured down and all sought shelter and many went away, believing that playing was over for the day. However, those who waited were rewarded by seeing the clouds break, and soon the teams were again at it.

Washington had barely opened the eighth when rain again fell so heavily that again play was suspended. The players began packing their bats. Macullar, however, hovered about.

The other championship games played yesterday resulted as follows:

At Philadelphia—Cleveland. 8; Philadelphia, 4 (first game). Cleveland, 6; Philadelphia, 3 (second game).

At Palitimore—St. Louis, 6; Baltimore, 3.

At New York—New York, 9; Cincinnati, 5.

The Pittsburg-Brooklyn, the first Cincinnati-New York and the second Baltimore-St. Louis games were prevented by rain.

"More experiments," growled a base ball crank. "Just as soon as the team strikes a winning series somebody gets an idea that we must have some more men. Why, now is the time to leave them alone. They're playing good ball. Just think, exchanging Kilrov for Abbey."

Abbey, the pitcher of the University of Vermont, has accepted terms with Washington and has wired he would report here Monday. A deal is on foot to exchange Pitchers Gastright and Foreman for Buffinton of the Baltimore club.

ENTERTAINMENTS ARRANGED. On Tuesday evening the Philadelphia doctors will entertain their colleagues at a reception to be held in Willard's Hotel. Thursday night the alumni of the New York College of Homeopathy will keep open house for the visitors at the Ebbitt House. The Baltimore doctors desire the delegates to spend Friday evening with them in the monumental city, where they will be entertained at the Southern Homeopathic Medical College. As many of the delegates will leave Friday night those going north can stop off at Baltimore very conveniently. The local committee on arrangements have decided not to hold the customary banquet. They thought that a trip down the Potomac would prove more agreeable to the visitors than the conventionalities of a banquet. Accordingly on Wednesday at 2 o'clock the steamer Macalester will take the party to Mount Vernon and then to Marshall Hall, where the enjoyments of a substantial supper and fete champetre will be had.

The local committee will have their headquarters at Willard's Hotel, where a bureau of information is to be established and a register of the delegates kept. Theodore Y. Kinne, the president of the institute, will have his headalumni of the New York College of Homeopathy

THE CITIZENS' MEETING.

It could be plainly seen in the faces of the one hundred or more gentlemen who assembled Wednesday in the hall of the First Co-operative THE BIRTEDAY OF THE INSTITUTE TO BE CELEBRATED—THE PROGRAM OF THE GENERAL SESSIONS—PAPERS TO BE READ BY LEADING PRINCIANS—THE LOCAL COMMITTEES.

The American Institute of Homeopathy will hold its forty-fifth session and celebrate its forty-ninth anniversary in this city, beginning Monday afternoon, June 13, at 3 o'clock and continuing until the following Friday at noon. In case all the business before the convention cannot be transacted in the period specified there will be an extension of time. The meetings for general business will be held in G. A. R. Hall. The sectional meetings will be held partly in the hall and partly in large parlors in the hotels. Over 500 delegates will participate in the convention, which is the first the new association it was agreed to continue the existence of the railroad committee of fifteen appointed at the last meeting. It was also agreed to appoint at the next meeting committees on streets and sewers, the Rock creek improvement, harbors and wharves, water and gas, cemeteries and taxes. On a motion of Mr. H. M. Baer it was decided to christen the new baby "The West Washington Citizens' Association." In many comparatively near parts of the country, Mr. J. E. Libbey said, the people do not know of the existence of a place called Georgetown, and he cited instances of having had freight repeatedly delayed on the road in consequence thereof. "We want to be a part and parcel of Washington city," said Mr. Tenney, "and never until we are will we receive a fair share of the improvements." In every way, it was said, Georgetown had been neglected. It is of vital importance to the place to have Rock creek arched over from the M street bridge to Lyons mill, and a strong effort will be made to secure legislation on the subject. The condition of legislation on the subject. The condition of 32d street extended from Holy Road cemetery to the electric power house was loudly con-demned, as was also the sunken sidewalk on M denned, as was also the sunken sidewalk on M street near the Aqueduct bridge.

Before the meeting adjourned the constitution of the old association was adopted, with certain amendments and those present, after paying a trifling sum toward the liquidation of any expense that might arise, declared themselves in heart and soul members of the West Washington Citizene Association ington Citizens' Association. Among the many present were Messrs. Fickling. Wheatley, Libbey, Cunningham. Cropley, Gilbert, King, Brown, Baer. Blumenthal, Dr. Shekell, Lee, Prof. Frisby, Hedrick, Manogue, Boteler, Tenney, Mitchell, Offutt, Archer, Moore and Smith. A PRETTY WEDDING.

The dim lights of Mt. Tabor Wednesday afternoon gleamed down upon a pretty wedding scene. Before an altar that was almost hidden behind a mass of choice ferns, flowers and plants stood the contracting parties, Rev. William Sherman Phillips and Miss Eva Louise am Sherman Phillips and Miss Eva Louise Thomas. The service was read by Rev. W. R. Graham, the pastor of Congress Street M. P. Church. Those who acted as ushers were Messrs, Benj. Hunt, Joseph Mills and D. F. Harris. Mr. E. Harry L. Myers was best man. FOUND ALONE AND ILL. At an early bour this morning a small boy reported at the police station that no one had responded to his knock at the secluded home of Capt. Wm. Chandler, 1618 Valley street, and he feared the only occupant was seriously ill. Officer Burrows went back with the boy and after knocking several times heard a low moan from the inside. Breaking open the door he discovered the captain, who for many years has lived a hermit's life, lying on the floor and apparently suffering great pain. Dr. A. B. Shekell was immediately summoned and medical assistance rendered.
